FEATURED ARTIST:	City & Colour	BREAKOUT ARTIST:	Chris Koster
	Bring Me Your Love Bring Me Your Love is City and Colour's sophomore studio album. It evolves and adds layers to the sentiments in those vulnerable moments shared by City and Colour (better known as Dallas Green of Alexisonfire) on his original independent release, and continues to demonstrate his talents as a musician, singer and songwriter. The album will be available in stores on February 12th, but be among the first 100 people to pre-order your copy from MapleMusic.com, and you will receive 1 of 3 limited edition posters!		Sex, Love & Morality Chris Koster is a rare talent – in an era of formulaic, uni-dimensional, cookie-cutter sameness, he stands out as an artist the likes of which is rarely witnessed or experienced. His new album, Sex, Love & Morality is an expansion from his last album as a solo singer/songwriter. This time, he has invited his band The Lonely to contribute to a few songs, which makes for an explosive, energetic album that will lend to his electrifying stage persona and full band performance. Pre-order your copy now!

NEW TO MAPLEMUSIC

Halflife Records is one of the leading independent music labels in Canada. The label is owned and operated by award winning artist/producer Classified and began as a vehicle for releasing his own material. The label is releasing Chad Hatcher's Tunnels & Pathways on January 15th.

Becky Black and Maya Miller of The Pack A.D. mean business. They take life on the road, Civil War stories, coffee and cigarettes, stir them into a vicious concoction of garage rock and Jack Daniels and then boil it alive in the blues. This Vancouver duo strikes with a raw, hell-torn, blues-rock swagger that is equally contemplative and unflinching. Tintype, their debut album, is scheduled for release on January 22nd, but you can pre-order your copy now on CD and/or vinyl!

Every once in awhile comes along an artist that forces your ears to tune in. It's the sound of a genre shifting, changing, and bending into something unique and fascinating. It's the sound of fast-rising chanteuse Rebekah Higgs. Rather than live in the shadows, Higgs balances her material with a steady dose of upbeat playfulness on her self-titled disc. "My Feet" represents flirtatious beginnings and "Mr. Weatherman," sees romance in daily forecasts. And she's more than capable of tackling ballads as heard on "Piano Song," displaying her crystalline voice.

Born and raised in Sudbury, Ontario, Canada, Kate Maki has a voice as wide and expansive as its moon-like terrain. Her music incorporates a variety of styles and influences, and can be classified as folk or Canadiana. Since the release of her first album in 2003, Kate's songwriting has grown to include more than the inner workings of her own heart. The songs from On High speak to a larger love: the workings of the world and her place in it. The album won't be released until February 12, but you can pre-order your copy now!

Moneen, The Red Tree

Moneen's The Red Tree explodes to a start with their distinct blend of frenzied guitars and emotional vocals. The perfectly arranged track list captivates the listener through all 11 tracks. Each song punctuates the album creating a seamless transition from their powerful compositions into a more subdued sound, making this an album you'll want to listen to from start to finish.

Blood's Too Rich is the seventh album from Juno-nominated Luke Doucet, whose discography includes three Veal albums, a live record, and three solo works. Luke also has a score of production credits under his belt, including, among others, three NQ Arbuckle albums and two Melissa McClelland albums. With all his production experience, it is no surprise that Luke produced this latest release himself. Start your year off right by picking up your copy today!

We are excited to announce the addition of Rock Plaza Central - a seven-piece Toronto-based racket inspired by carnival sideshows and dustbowl ballads, playing with the confused jubilation of a blind-drunk Salvation Army band. You can find the band's 2003 release The World Was Hell To Us, as well as their 2006 release, Are We Not Horses right here on MapleMusic.com.

MAPLEMUSIC SPECIALS

Following the success of 'Act 1: Goodbye Friends Of The Heavenly Bodies', Neverending White Lights continues its musical journey with Act 2: The Blood And The Life Eternal. Act 2 revisits and expands the vivid sonic landscape created by Daniel Victor's epic writing, performance, and production. Guests include Auf der Maur, Rob Dickinson (Catherine Wheel), Mat Joly (Mobile), Sune Rose Wagner (The Raveonettes), Hawksley Workman, and more.

Ridley Bent serves up tall tales, sweet rhymes, and love songs, with a dash of mayhem and murder on the side on his new album, Buckles and Boots. Populated by a cast of modern day desperadoes, lovesick drifters, and small town heroes, Buckles and Boots, is full to the brim with stories you just can't take your ears off.
